Press Release

Twelve CUC Supervisors complete Leadership Certificate

Caribbean Utilities Company, Ltd. (CUC) hosted a ceremony to celebrate the achievements of 12 supervisors who were presented with the Level 3 Certificate in Leadership and Management from the Institute of Leadership and Management (ILM). The ceremony was held at the George Town Yacht Club on Monday, June 12th where the Company celebrated with the inaugural group of employees who completed the programme after over a year of dedicated studies.

The Institute of Leadership & Management (ILM) programme, which is offered by Management Solutions Ltd. is focused on key Leadership principles which include Understanding Effective Teamwork, Workplace Communication, Leading and Motivating A Team Effectively and Managing Projects.

The ILM Level 3 Certificate in Leadership and Management is a comprehensive course designed to give practicing or aspiring first line managers a solid foundation in their formal development as a manager.

Addressing the group, CUC's President and CEO, Mr. Richard Hew, reminded the successful participants of the Company's goal of ensuring that each employee is developed to be the best that they can be and he encouraged them to use the learning they attained during the course to improve their effectiveness as leaders of their teams and to bring alignment with the strategic objectives of the Company.

Mr. Eric Jenkinson, Principal of Management Solutions Ltd., stated that CUC is the first company in the Caribbean to sponsor an ILM graduating team. He told the graduates that they now have the skills required to be great leaders and they should utilize these skills to the fullest.
